

Delaware Legal Workshop Series

with Delaware Libraries Partners

Thursdays 6:00pm • 1 Hour Session • Zoom

April Sessions

- April 8: What You Need to Know For This Year's Tax Season by DCRAC

Stimulus check refunds, the Payment Protection Program (PPP), coronavirus relief and more. DCRAC is answering the most popular questions they've received for this year's tax season so you can avoid filing headaches.

- April 15: Divorce by the Law Office of Shauna T. Hagan

Divorce is a whirlwind, but it doesn't have to capsize your life! This session is designed to equip you with the information you need to make the right decision for your marriage and your life.

- April 22: Expungement by the APEX Program

Expungements seal your record so that your state background check will no longer show a criminal record. Attend this session to learn about the process of getting an expungement and what help is out there.

- April 29: Tenants' Rights, Private Housing by LSCD

Renting an apartment or home is something almost everyone does sooner or later. Whether you already have a place to live or if you are currently searching, this session will tell you what rights you have as a tenant to add to your peace of mind.

May Sessions

- May 6: Tenants' Rights, Subsidized Housing by CLASI

Subsidized sites offer rents based on household income in accordance with federal regulations. If you or someone you know is living in or considering moving into subsidized housing then this session will help you understand current regulations and your rights as a tenant.

- May 13: Protection From Abuse (PFA) by DVLS

Abuse is defined by Delaware Courts as any threatening or harmful conduct including serious emotional harm. Attend this session to learn about Protection From Abuse (PFA) Orders and the process of filing them.

- May 20: Custody by the Law Office of Shauna T. Hagan

What are your rights as a parent? This session will cover topics such as custody arrangements, filing custody paperwork, and preparing for a custody hearing.

- May 27: Child Support by the DE Division of Child Support Services

This session will cover the basics of Child Support and what you need to know as a parent who may be providing or receiving Child Support.

Free registration is required.
